

Boyd Martin and Ying Yang Yo Crowned Dansko Fair Hill International CCI* Champions

October 16, 2011 - Elkton, MD - Boyd Martin and Fay Woolf's Ying Yang Yo pull off the PRO Tour Series CCI win at Dansko Fair Hill International, which also crowns them as the USEF CCI National Champions. Becky Holder and Tom Holder's Can't Fire Me finished second, and Jan Byyny capped off a super weekend by finishing third with her own Inmidair.

As expected, the triple points available for the CCI at Fair Hill has shaken things up on both the PRO Tour HAYGAIN Horse Leader Board and the Voltaire Design Riders Leader Boards. Galway Downs will be the last event on the PRO Tour Series and should also cause some big changes to the leader boards.

It was a busy weekend for the SSG "Go Low For The Dough" promotion with Caroline Martin winning $1,500 as the low score young rider in the CCI after the dressage phase. Daniel Clasing won $2,000 due to rollovers after the cross-country phase in the CCI by jumping a clear round on the optimum time of 10:08. Kadi Eykamp, who bought her SSG Eventer gloves at the competition, made a sound investment and was awarded $1,000 in SSG bonus award money when she completed a clear show jumping round right on the time allowed. Galway Downs International will be the final PRO Tour Series event with the opportunity to win SSG bonus award money.

Congratulations to Will Faudree, Shetland Pony rider Ellee, and her pony Smarty Bones for just edging out Clark Montgomery to win the PRO Shetland Pony Relay Race at Fair Hill on Sunday. PRO would like to thank Olney Farm Shetland Ponies for bringing the ponies and young riders to compete!
