

SSG “Go Low for the Dough” Continues at Plantation Field

Unionville, PA - August 24, 2011 - Due to the bonus award money rollover from Millbrook, $2,000 in bonus award money will be available to be won in the Plantation Field International CIC in the dressage phase, for any rider with the lowest overall score who is wearing SSG Digital or Eventer style gloves. Each subsequent phase of the competition will be worth an additional $500 in bonus award money. The cross-country and show jumping winners are determined by a double clear round that is closest to the optimum time, while wearing SSG Digital or Eventer style gloves. Any bonus money not won rolls over to the next phase, increasing the pot. SSG gloves are available in the vendor area.

In the CIC, $500 in bonus rollover award money is available to be won in the dressage phase for the lowest overall dressage score by a Junior/Young Rider or Adult Amateur wearing SSG Digital or SSG Eventer gloves. Each subsequent phase of the competition will be worth an additional $250 in bonus award money. The cross- country and show jumping winners are determined by a double clear round that is closest to the optimum time, while wearing SSG Digital or Eventer style gloves. Any bonus money not won rolls over to the next phase of the competition, increasing the pot. SSG gloves are available in the vendor area.

For more information, contact Samantha Lendl, Executive Director, PRO
772.633.6129, samantha@professionalriders.org

###